The voice on the radio announces us snow, blizzard and cold, and man, he's damn right,
The temperature is falling, memory's calling, but I'm coming home tonight.

Chorus:

It's the season were everyone cheers of delight, Hugging and kissing, and stars shining bright,
Carols and boxes and mistle and wine, and forgiveness, is with us all the time.

he promise I gave, a long time ago, gone by the wind, vanished and drained,
Shattered a heart, it fell apart, but time heals, everything

Chorus:

It's the season were everyone cheers of delight, Hugging and kissing, and stars shining bright,
Carols and boxes and mistle and wine, and forgiveness, is with us all the time.

A broken promise, to often spoken, made us silent, for so many winters ago,
An old heard nearly was broken, but I'm coming home tonight.

Chorus:

It's the season were everyone cheers of delight, Hugging and kissing, and stars shining bright,
Carols and boxes and mistle and wine, and forgiveness, is with us all the time.
